Endeavour Foundation Membership

Membership of Endeavour Foundation

At Endeavour Foundation, people we support and their human rights are at the heart of all we do. We partner with people to make possibilities a reality.

As a Member of Endeavour Foundation, you:

- join a community committed to championing inclusion, choice, and human rights for people with intellectual disability.
- have a real voice in shaping the organisation and the broader disability sector.
- actively contribute to lasting positive change through voting, engagement, and support.

The role of a Member

Members have the opportunity to:

- be part of an organisation that leads the way in the disability sector.
- advocate for the rights of people with intellectual disability to feel included, empowered and lead full and purposeful lives where they can exercise choice and control.
- input and feedback to our representatives to support Endeavour Foundation's continual improvement and growth.
- attend our Annual General Meeting (AGM).
- vote on important matters impacting the people we support.
- elect Directors of the Endeavour Foundation Board.
- participate in support of our events, fundraising and philanthropy.
- express interest in joining a Service Advisory Group.

Who can be an Endeavour Foundation Member

- We welcome people aged 18 or over and encourage membership from people we support, their families, carers and anyone who is interested in promoting the rights and wellbeing of people with disability.
- Our members often have a connection with Endeavour Foundation as a person with disability, a family or carer, employee, volunteer, fundraiser, donor or supporter of events.
