Your team possible

Endeavour Foundation supports people with intellectual disability to live, learn, work and flourish according to their own interests and priorities. We focus on ability and making things happen. Whether it's learning life skills, living independently, socialising and making new friends, finding a job you love or exploring interests and trying new things, we work with you to make your possibilities a reality.

Cultural engagement

At Endeavour Foundation, our Cultural Engagement Manager works with our Indigenous community to provide services to people with disability and their families, in a creative and flexible manner. We work with you as an individual and involve you in the planning and delivery of services and supports.

Live, learn, work and flourish

We're at the heart of local communities in North Queensland, offering choice, opportunities and personalised support in key areas.

Home

If you're thinking about moving into your own place for the first time, we can make it happen. We can also help with in-home assistance ranging from support 24 hours a day, to help with personal care, household tasks and mealtimes.

Daily Living

Making the most of daily life is important to all of us. We can help you develop important daily skills to live independently, get out and about in your local community, or just support you with daily tasks.

Learning

Together we'll co-design a tailored learning program that supports you to reach your life, work and personal goals. You can also use our ground-breaking Virtual Learning Environment where you can learn in a safe, controlled environment before trying out your new skills in real life.

Work

We have a range of employment and training options designed to help you reach your goals and find a job you love. With real jobs in a social and supportive environment, we can help you figure out what you want to do and the skills you'll need to get there.

Social and Community Participation

If you're keen to try a new activity, make new friends or just to get out and about, we have many options available to you. You can choose to do more of the things you already enjoy or try something new.

Relationships and Independence

We work together to design the support you'd like to enable you to live the life you want. We aim to support you to build and maintain strong and positive relationships with everyone who is important in your life.

Endeavour Foundation locations

Our supports and services are available throughout North Queensland. Contact your Cultural Engagement Manager to find out what's in your neighbourhood.
