SIT20322

Certificate II in Hospitality

Skilling Queenslanders for Work

Inclusive Careers

Work can help you build confidence, develop independence, make connections and open the door to exciting opportunities.

Since 1951, Endeavour Foundation has supported people with intellectual disability to learn practical skills, achieve their goals and find rewarding employment.

Now, through the Queensland Government's Skilling Queenslanders for Work initiative, you can gain the knowledge and experience to start your journey in the hospitality industry.

What You Will Receive

- Face-to-face training
- Accredited and non-accredited industry training
- Information sessions from hospitality professionals
- Pathways to employment opportunities
- Training delivered by experienced, industry-qualified trainers
- Ongoing support and 1:1 mentoring throughout the program
- A fully inclusive training environment
- Tailored job skills training materials

Employment Opportunities

- Café Attendant
- Food and Beverage Attendant
- Kitchen Hand
- Porter

For more information
call 1800 112 112
Available in Burleigh

NDVR Endeavour Foundation | 75 YEARS | Registered NDIS Provider

This Skilling Queenslanders for Work project is proudly funded by the Queensland Government. Training provided by Registered Training Organisation, EDB Training Services, RTO code 32376.