CHC32015

Certificate III in Community Services

Skilling Queenslanders for Work

Community Careers

Build a rewarding career supporting individuals and communities with the Certificate III in Community Services. This nationally recognised qualification is ideal for those looking to enter a people-focused, purpose-driven industry and develop the skills needed for employment across the community services sector.

Skilling Queenslanders for Work is a Queensland Government initiative that provides free training and employment support to help eligible people gain skills and move into work.

Why Choose This Course

- Nationally recognised qualification aligned to the community services sector
- Clear pathways into a wide range of community-based roles
- Résumé development and job application support
- Interview preparation and job readiness training
- Development of strong communication and support skills
- Support to connect with employers and transition into paid employment

Employment Opportunities

- Aboriginal Community Development Worker or Youth Worker
- Accommodation Support Worker
- Assistant Community Worker
- Community Care Worker
- Residential Support Worker
- Support Worker (Community Services)
- Youth Support Worker

What You Will Receive

- Face-to-face training
- Accredited and non-accredited industry training
- Information sessions from industry experts
- Connections to employment opportunities
- Training delivered by experienced, industry-qualified trainers
- Ongoing support and 1:1 mentoring throughout the program

Eligibility Criteria

Eligible participants must be Australian or New Zealand citizens residing in Queensland and must not hold an equivalent or higher qualification in a similar industry.

For more information call 1800 112 112

Available in Gladstone
167 Auckland Street
Gladstone QLD 4680

NDVR Endeavour Foundation | 75 YEARS

This Skilling Queenslanders for Work project is proudly funded by the Queensland Government. Training provided by Registered Training Organisation, Axiom Collegee Pty Ltd, RTO code 40489.