We have put hard words in bold. We explain what these words mean

This Easy Read is about membership of Endeavour Foundation.

When we talk about membership of Endeavour Foundation we mean joining a formal group of people who:

- have a connection to Endeavour Foundation.
- want people with intellectual disability to be included and make decisions.
- vote on important matters impacting people we support.

People we support and their human rights are at the heart of all we do at Endeavour Foundation.

We would like you to be a member of Endeavour Foundation as your ideas matter to us and to other disability organisations.

As a member you will be able to help us make good changes for people with intellectual disability within our services and in the community.

There is no cost for people we support to be a member of Endeavour Foundation.

Members of Endeavour Foundation also have the opportunity to:

- attend our Annual General Meeting (AGM)
- vote on important matters impacting people we support.
- vote to elect Directors of the Endeavour Foundation Board.
- share ideas and give feedback to help improve our organisation and services.
- speak up for other people with intellectual disability.
- take part in events and fundraising activities.
