

Supported Employment

Employment can boost your confidence and self-esteem. It connects you with your community and can give you a strong sense of purpose.

We believe that employment opportunities are critical in creating an inclusive and empowering community for people with a disability.

Employment opportunities at Endeavour Foundation offer a valuable hands on employment experience in a supportive and social environment. We offer full-time and part-time employment, and training and personal development at locations throughout Queensland, Western Sydney and Victoria. Our experienced staff work with you to achieve the goals you set throughout your working life.

How to get involved?

If you are 16 years of age or older, have a disability and are looking for a rewarding job, contact us to see what opportunities we currently have on offer.

Go to our Supported Employment page on our website: endeavour.com.au/supported employees

You can either fill out our online enquiry form or contact one of our friendly and experienced Employment Services team members.

We have many different types of jobs available and provide on-the-job training to all employees.

Working for Endeavour Foundation includes superannuation, personal accident coverage and leave entitlements.

Endeavour Foundation is Australia's largest employer of people with a disability. We are an approved provider of supported employment under NDIS.
